

Computer Simulation of Radiation Effects in Solids 2016 (COSIRES 2016)

Location: Loughborough University

Dates: 19-24 June 2016

Second announcement and call for abstract.

The 2016 Computer Simulation of Radiation Effects in Solids (COSIRES) is the 13th edition of this conference. The biennial conference is a major international forum to present and discuss the recent achievements in the advanced computer modelling of surface and bulk phenomena stimulated by all forms of irradiation.

The thirteenth COSIRES meeting will take place at Loughborough University, UK from 19-24 June 2016. Please visit the web site for further details.

The meeting is supported by CCP5, the IOP and the IAEA.
